THE DISCOVERY HOUSE NAMES JENNIFER OLVERA AS PROGRAM ADMINISTRATOR

Jennifer Brings 14 years Industry Experience to Residential Program

[Los Angeles, CA - 3/1/2018] - The Discovery House today announced that Jennifer Olvera had been named program administrator of the residential addiction treatment center in Los Angeles. Jennifer will be overseeing the detox and residential programs ensuring that the residents receive the support that they need in their recovery.

“Jennifer has outstanding experience in the field over the past 14 years which has allowed for immense growth and understanding of substance misuse and treatment,” Tom Whiting, executive director of The Discovery House, shared. “From the clients to the staff, she loves to help people improve. I believe she will contribute greatly to the to the higher quality of care that we aim to provide for our clients.”

As a licensed marriage and family therapist, Jennifer has been working in the field of mental health and substance abuse since 2004. She received her Masters in Clinical Psychology from California State University Dominguez Hills and minored in sociology. From data collection and support staff to therapy and now program administrator, Jennifer has seen the field from every angle and understands how vital procedure and policy are to the care of the client.

Addiction is a family disease which impacts more than just the person using. Jennifer possesses a deep understanding of the family unit through the addiction process and will bring her expertise to the clinical team at The Discovery House. Whether at the detox level or the residential level, her goal is to create an avenue of hope and enlightenment so the clients can be happy and substance-free.
